To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to wholeheartedly endorse the Wings of Faith as the benevolent arm of our community, in their application for a Section 18A certificate. This certification will enable donors to claim tax deductions for their contributions to The Wings of Faith.

Wings of Faith inspired by the biblical principles derived in line with our Christian and discipleship values. The Wings of Faith is a vital outreach initiative of our church, dedicated to serving the most vulnerable members of our community. Our mission is to demonstrate the love of Christ by providing support and care to those in need. Embracing Matthew 25:35-46 as an anchor passage; from this scripture, the Wings of Faith derived four key critical pillars:

Pillar 1: NUTRITION

Objective: Promote food security and nutrition while creating income-generating opportunities.

- Youth-Led Urban Farming Projects: Train women and youth to establish urban gardens and micro-farms using sustainable methods.
- Community Kitchens: Establish community kitchens where women and youth can provide affordable, nutritious meals while earning income.
- Nutrition Workshops: Educate communities on healthy eating and food preservation techniques.

Expected Impact:

- Improved food security and health outcomes.
- Economic empowerment for women and youth through sustainable agriculture and cooking ventures.

Pillar 2: HOSPITAL SUPPORT

Objective: Strengthen healthcare services and provide support for healthcare workers.

- Youth Volunteer Programs: Engage youth volunteers to support hospitals with administrative tasks and patient care.
- Resource Provision: Supply hospitals with essential medical equipment, hygiene products, and PPE.

- Mental Health Awareness: Conduct workshops for healthcare workers on managing stress and mental health.
- Day Hospital: We envisage conducting back clinic, 3-day hospital admission and wellness center

Expected Impact:

- Enhanced healthcare delivery and worker morale.
- Increased involvement of youth in community healthcare.

Pillar 3: Prison Reintegration

Objective: Empower incarcerated people and ex-offenders with the tools to reintegrate into society and reduce recidivism.

- Skills Training for Women and Youth Offenders: Offer vocational training in trades such as sewing, baking, carpentry, and coding.
- Mentorship Programs: Pair ex-offenders with mentors to guide their reintegration process.
- Community Awareness Campaigns: Reduce stigma and foster acceptance of rehabilitated individuals.

Expected Impact:

- Empowered individuals with employable skills.
- Stronger community cohesion and reduced crime rates.

Pillar 4: Support for Vulnerable Members

Objective: Uplift and protect children, women, and the elderly through targeted initiatives.

- Child Development Centers: Provide safe spaces for after-school programs, educational support, and recreational activities.
- Women Empowerment Programs: Offer entrepreneurship training, financial literacy workshops, and access to micro-loans.
- Elderly Care Services: Create home-based care networks and social programs to combat isolation among the elderly.
- Informal Settlements: Serving with practical and spiritual needs of individuals and families living in the selected areas.

Expected Impact:

- Improved safety, education, and opportunities for children and women.
- Enhanced quality of life and dignity for the elderly.

Purpose of the Section 18A Certificate:

The Section 18A certificate will enable the Wings of Faith to issue tax-deductible receipts to donors, incentivising generosity and supporting our mission to serve the community. This certification will also demonstrate our commitment to transparency and accountability in our financial dealings.

Conclusion:

I confidently endorse the Wings of Faith and their application for a Section 18A certificate. Their selfless dedication to serving the community, combined with their commitment to financial integrity, makes them an exemplary organization worthy of this certification.

Please feel free to contact me if you require any additional information.

Sincerely:

Mr Mpho Khalo
